Being Your Coveted Partner is Our Passion

At Breckenridge Insurance, we strive to be your most coveted, competitive, and trusted partner who consistently delivers ready access to a team of experts and notable solutions. Although we're not the biggest out there, we've been told we are very good at solving problems to help our partners win business. That makes for a great day in the insurance industry.

We work hard to simplify access to insurance expertise and improve the transaction process for you and your insureds.

From having longstanding carrier partnerships that work closely with our team, to a range of quality contract binding facilities, to industry-experienced program underwriters, and technology-driven self-service solutions and support tools, we've got you covered all in one place. We welcome a discussion to earn an opportunity with you.

Get Appointed

We've made it pretty easy to get appointed. This simple, online process will take 10 minutes if you have your documentation ready. Click here to see what you need. We'll then get you set up with us and be in touch.

Self-Service Solutions

Our appointed agents get access to a range of top-rated carrier solutions for the smaller business or more straightforward risks you have. Click here to see our lineup including coverages from professional, to events, and cyber to all types of industries.

Policy ePay

Insureds can pay their policy invoice easily online as can you. We're set up to process electronic checks and accept major credit cards to simplify things for you and your hard-earned clients. See for yourself here.

Thought Leadership
